

THE FLY NAVY FEDERATION COMMEMORATIVE
LIMITED EDITION OF A 50 YEAR OLD AND 25 YEAR
OLD SINGLE MALT WHISKY FROM THE SPEYSIDE
REGION OF SCOTLAND

As part of the celebration of the Centenary of Naval Aviation we have commissioned a Centenary Malt Whisky as a memento of the year. Prices are as follows.

1. Limited Edition (numbered 1-50) 50 year old Malt £179.00

2. Limited Edition (numbered 1-250) 25 year old Malt £60.00

Each bottle will be labeled and numbered with a specially designed label, front and back in a commemorative tube and a certificate of authenticity issued with each bottle. Orders for bottles are now being taken with delivery very being made from June 2009. Demand for these products is expected to be high so early bookings are advised. A quantity of each will be held back for industry and sponsorship etc and requests for bottles for auction will also be considered.

If you would like to reserve one or more of these bottles please contact Dave Clark by Email daclark@faaba.org.uk or by phone 01935 704580 (day) or 01935 474862 (evenings) to be entered on the respective list. Postage and packaging to UK addresses only will be charged at cost in addition to the prices displayed above. Overseas ships and Establishments prices on application.

All profits from the sales of this venture will be shared equally between three worthy causes:

- 1 RN Benevolent Fund
2. The FAA Heritage Fund
3. To contribute to the cost of an "All Ranks" memorial stone at the National Arboretum.

Why not buy a bottle and raffle it off at your local golf club, Round Table or other organisation you may have an interest in
